

I am adamantly opposed to the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) attempt to obtain an exemption to the Indiana Telephone Privacy program based on having a "business relationship" with consumers. I signed up for the no call list because I do not want unsolicited phone calls regardless of who they are from. If I need to talk with a bank I will call them. John Knapp